

21. Since Plutonium has $Z = 94$ and Uranium has $Z = 92$, we see that (to conserve charge) two electrons must be emitted so that the nucleus can gain a $+2e$ charge. In the beta decay processes described in Chapter 43, electrons and neutrinos are emitted. The reaction series is as follows:

