

14. In the sketches shown below, the lines with the arrows are field lines and those without are the equipotentials (which become more circular the closer one gets to the individual charges) . In all pictures, q_2 is on the left and q_1 is on the right (which is reversed from the way it is shown in the textbook).

(a)

