

29. (a) $-q$, from conservation of charges.
- (b) Each of the two particles will move in the same circular path, initially going in the opposite direction. After traveling half of the circular path they will collide. So the time is given by $t = T/2 = \pi m/Bq$ (where Eq. 29-17 has been used).