

33. The area of a triangle is half the product of its base and altitude. The base is the side formed by vector \vec{a} . Then the altitude is $b \sin \phi$ and the area is $A = \frac{1}{2}ab \sin \phi = \frac{1}{2}|\vec{a} \times \vec{b}|$.